13. EXPLANATORY NOTES:

The fees in currency different from EUR, if they don't listed, are converted from EUR fee by the foreign exchange rate of ECB midrange on the operation day (exclude Cross border transfers).

Fees are charged in connection with accounts in foreign currencies, as released, applying the Corporate Clients Price-list.

13.1. Free of charge transaction made by Debit cards only by cards in package offer

Additional surcharges for using a card

Card payments with merchants:

In certain countries, merchants may add surcharges to card payments to the total shopping price.

Such surcharges are at the merchant's discretion and their amount must not exceed the costs probably related to the merchant's costs of accepting payment cards. Merchants are obliged to inform the card holders of the amount of the surcharge in advance, usually via a written notification placed at the cash-desk in their shops.

Withdrawals from ATMs

When withdrawing money from ATMs, the owner of the ATM may charge an additional fee for using the ATM. The owner of the ATM is obliged to provide information as to the additional fee on the ATM's screen in the same language selected for using the ATM. If the user does not agree with the fee, he/she may cancel the withdrawal. UniCredit Bank only charges clients who withdraw cash from ATMs with a fee referred to in the Bank's applicable price list.

DCC - Dynamic currency conversion

Withdrawals from ATMs are usually paid out in the currency of the country where the transaction is being implemented. In some ATMs, the DCC - Dynamic currency conversion – service may be used. DCC is a service allowing for transaction in foreign currency to be immediately converted into EUR, using the commercial exchange rate determined by the recipient bank. As for transactions where the DCC service has been used, the transaction is cleared using a commercial exchange rate defined by the recipient bank. The Bank processes transactions in EUR, i.e. the clearing currency is EUR.

- 13.20 The account without any securities is also charged. If the value of assets in Administration/Evidence is different, the Fee shall be applied on higher value. The fee applies to all types of financial instruments, including mutual funds with the exception for Amundi. UniCredit Bank has made maximum effort to estimate the value, having based itself on the prices provided by third party depositories or by other relevant data providers operating on the market. Prices provided by third parties are referred to as either market prices or their estimated values. Nominal values of the held investment instruments, or, the technical figure 0.000001 may be alternatively used in place of the price as a rule where the market value or estimated value of the held investment instrument is unavailable. If the CDCP (CDCP CZ) has included the held investment instruments in the list of issues for which no securities maintenance fee is charged, the technical figure 0.000001 must be used without exception. While UniCredit Bank considers the sources trusted and provides information obtained from them in good faith, it is nevertheless unable to guarantee and therefore assumes no liability whatsoever for this information's up-to-date status, completeness and correctness, and hence, no liability for that information. The presented values and prices do not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any of the above investment instruments.
- 13.21 The Fee is calculated from the value of assets in Administration/Evidence of investment asset on the last business day of the quarter, charging is on quarterly basis.
- 13.22. Detailed information regarding the concrete issue will be provided on request.
- 13.23. The fees for the SMS notifications shall be charged at the end of calendar month. The prices valid at the moment of charging will be used for billing the fees.
The period of billing of fees for notifications by means of the SMS starts on the last working day of the previous calendar month and ends on the day which proceeds the last working day of the bank of the current calendar month in which the fees are charged.
For charging it is decisive the day, when the payment to which the notification concerns is debited to the account except for
- the notifications of debit card transactions, when it is the decisive day the day, when the notification SMS is sent,
- the transactions, which are posted during the night processing and sent the next morning (e.g. interests and fees),
- the SMS sent for the days off, which are for the charging purposes summed up together with the SMS sent on the very next working day.
