- b) singular shall include plural and vice versa;
- c) references to Articles and Sections are references to Articles and Sections of these Business Terms and Conditions.

PART TWO

PERFORMANCE OF PAYMENT TRANSACTIONS

Article 3

General Conditions

1. The Bank provides Payment Services and performs Payment Transactions in compliance with the Act on Payment Services and other generally binding legal regulations, relevant Contract, as well as the business usage applied in the banking sector.
2. Unless otherwise implied by the Contract on Current Account concluded between the Bank and the Payment Services User, the Payer's Current Account is intended for the performance of Payment Transactions; such an account is at the same time the Payment Account and the Contract on Current Account represents a Framework Agreement at the same time.
3. The Bank performs Payment Transactions based on a Payment Order submitted to the Bank by the Payer or Beneficiary directly or through a Payment Initiation Services provider for the purpose of transfer of money to the debit of the Payer and to the credit of the Beneficiary.
4. In case the client submits a SEPA Payment Order to the Bank and the bank of the Beneficiary is seated in an EEA country and has not acceded to SEPA, the Bank shall carry out such Payment Order as a Cross-Border Payment. In such case, the fees and processing periods are subject to the SEPA Payment Regime.
5. The Payer or the Beneficiary shall be responsible for complete, accurate and true data in Payment Orders addressed to the Bank and for their compliance with generally binding legal regulations, Contract on Current Account and these Business Terms and Conditions.
6. If the Payment Order has a form of bulk Payment Order, it may only contain Payment Orders within the SR with the same Settlement Date.
7. In the case of a Standing Order, the Payer is also obliged to agree with the Bank on maturity of individual Credit Transfers.
8. The Bank will only provide the Beneficiary with the payment service of SEPA Direct Debit if agreed so between the Beneficiary and the Bank in writing and in advance. The written agreement shall also contain the conditions for providing this service. By virtue of Payer's entitlement to be refunded the sum of the executed SEPA Direct Debit, the Beneficiary undertakes that in the case of cancellation of the Beneficiary's account in the moment of maturity of the Payer's entitlement the Beneficiary will pay the Bank the sum corresponding with the executed SEPA Direct Debit in the way agreed with the Bank.
9. If the Payer grants consent to execution of Payment Transaction to the Bank, the Bank considers the Payment Transaction to be authorized.
10. The Payer can grant the Bank the consent to execution of Payment Transaction:
 - a) by signing of a paper form of the Payment Order in compliance with the Specimen Signature to the Payment Account, namely in compliance with the GBT&C;
 - b) in any other way (e.g. identification code); in such a case the form of the grant of consent to the Bank is agreed in the relevant Contract between the Payer and the Bank, namely depending on the way of submitting Payment Orders (for instance, electronic banking, payment cards).
 - c) through a Payment Initiation Services provider.
11. If there is considered a SEPA Direct Debit, the Payer must give his Mandate to the Beneficiary.
12. In addition to the Payer's Mandate granted to the Beneficiary, also consent (permit) of the Payer granted to the Bank is a condition for the execution of SEPA Direct Debit. The Payer shall give the Bank his consent (permit) for execution of SEPA Direct Debit from his Account:

- a) to the credit of the account of any Beneficiary, i.e. the Payer's Account is open for SEPA Direct Debit;
 - b) to the credit of any account of the particular Beneficiary, i.e. the Payer's Account is conditionally open for SEPA Direct Debit.
13. The consent (permit) for Direct Debit performance granted by the Payer to the Bank before 1 February 2014 shall remain valid according to the agreed terms and conditions. The Payer can only change in the consent (permit) the amount of the Maximum Permitted Direct Debit Limit. In the case of a request for supplementation of the conditions valid for SEPA Direct Debit, the consent (permit) for Direct Debit performance has to be cancelled and a new consent (permit) for SEPA Direct Debit performance has to be placed.
 14. If the Payer who is not Consumer grants the Bank consent to SEPA Direct Debit performance and the SEPA Direct Debit is carried out according to his consent (permit), then the Payer shall not be entitled to be refunded money, including the case that the particular sum of Direct Debit is not determined in the time of grant of the Mandate to the Beneficiary and the sum of the Direct Debit exceeds the sum that could be reasonably expected by the Payer.
 15. If the Payer does not grant the Bank the consent (permit) for SEPA Direct Debit performance, it shall be deemed by the Bank that the Payer's Payment Account is closed for SEPA Direct Debit and the Bank shall refuse to perform SEPA Direct Debit.
 16. The conditions for SEPA Direct Debit performance shall not apply to the payment of contractually agreed commitments of the Payer towards the Bank; the payment conditions are determined in their mutual agreement.
 17. If a Payment Services User who is not Consumer denies that he has authorized the performed Payment Transaction and the Bank records use of the Mean of Payment, then the use of the Mean of Payment shall represent a sufficient proof that the Payer has authorized the relevant Payment Transaction or caused its authorized performance.
 18. A Payer who is Consumer can withdraw a Credit Transfer Payment Order submitted to the Bank, however, not later than on the Banking Day preceding the Settlement Date. The Bank shall notify the Cut-Off Time by Publication; the Credit Transfer Payment Order becomes irrevocable on the Settlement Date. A Payer who is not Consumer shall not be entitled to withdraw the Credit Transfer Order once it is submitted to the Bank.
 19. Since the Settlement Date, the date when the Credit Transfer Payment Order becomes irrevocable, the Payer can only ask the Bank to mediate refund of the Payment from the Beneficiary's Bank. If the currency of the payment to be refunded is not identical with the currency of the Payer's Account, the Bank shall use for conversion the exchange rate valid on the day of refund of the payment.
 20. The Beneficiary can withdraw a Direct Debit Payment Order submitted to the Bank, however, not later than on the Banking Day preceding the Settlement Date. The time during which the Direct Debit Payment Order can be withdrawn (Cut-Off Time) shall be notified by the Bank by Publication. The Direct Debit Payment Order becomes irrevocable on the Settlement Date.
 21. If a Payment Order is submitted through a Payment Initiation Services provider, the Payer may not withdraw the Payment Order to perform such Payment Transaction once the Payment Order is sent or once the Payer gives his or her consent to the Payment Initiation Services provider to perform the Payment Transaction.
 22. The Payer can refuse performance of SEPA Direct Debit not more than 10 Banking Days and at least 1 Banking Day before the Settlement Date of the SEPA Direct Debit. The Bank shall notify the Cut-Off Time by Publication.
 23. A Payer who is Consumer can ask the Bank for refund of the sum of the performed SEPA Direct Debit within the deadline of 8 weeks after the day when the sum of the Direct Debit was debited from the Payer's account, namely not later than on the last Banking Day before expiry of the deadline. The Bank shall notify the Cut-Off Time by Publication.
 24. In connection with fulfilment of the obligations pursuant to generally binding legal regulations, the Bank shall be entitled and obliged to refuse or postpone fulfilment of a Payment Order of a Payment Services User if the fulfilment of the Payment Order might be at variance with generally binding legal regulations or decisions of international organizations or other countries, for instance: a Payment Order addressed

- to a country subjected to international sanctions. The Payment Services User hereby acknowledges that a payment can also be returned or retained by another bank which will evaluate the Payment Order as unacceptable or which will refuse to carry out the Payment Order for other similar reasons.
25. If the Bank refuses to carry out Payment Services User's Payment Order which represents an instalment of loan, the Bank shall inform the Payment Services User thereof only by means of a Reminder – Call to Settle Obligation. The Bank shall be entitled to charge a Fee according to the valid Price List for the dispatch of such a reminder.
 26. The Bank shall provide an Account Owner who is Consumer with information about the balance of money on the Payment Account and about performed Payment Transactions for the agreed calendar period, namely in the form of statements from the Payment Account sent within the deadlines and in the way agreed with the Account Owner in the Contract on Current Account. The Bank shall provide an Account Owner who is Consumer with statements from the Payment Account free of charge and at least once a month, unless otherwise agreed in the Contract on Current Account. The Bank charges fees for the provision of any additional or more frequent information, namely according to the valid Price List.
 27. If the Bank maintains a Payment Account on which Funds are kept relating to a residential house administration of an owner of apartment or non-residential space (hereinafter referred to as the "Owner") which may be handled by the administrator or the association of owners pursuant to the Act No. 182/1993 Coll. as amended, it shall provide the owner at his request, even without the consent of the administrator or association of owners, free of charge, after proving his identity and submitting the extract from the title deed to the apartment or residential space, not older than three months and not having to be an extract intended for legal purposes, with information on the current balance of the available Funds and Payment Transactions carried out on such Payment Account for the period of previous six calendar months relating to the debiting of the Payment Transaction amount from such Payment Account. The Bank may provide the owner with the information according to the previous sentence even on a repeated basis, or for a different period, being entitled to charge fee for every following provision of such information.
 28. The Bank shall inform the Payment Services User who is not Consumer about balance of money on account and about performance of Payment Transactions in the time and under the terms and conditions mutually agreed between them; the Bank shall be entitled to charge a fee for that service according to the valid Price List. The Bank shall not be obliged to inform the Payment Services User who is not Consumer about the amount of balance of his own funds according to the Act on Payment Services.
 29. If the Bank cannot perform the received Payment Order, it shall notify this fact to the Payer or to the Beneficiary:
 - a) in the form and in the interval agreed with the Bank for delivery of information about performed Payment Transactions (except for incorrectly completed Payment Orders submitted in paper form on forms); and/or
 - b) without undue delay after the refusal to perform the payment, namely in the form agreed for delivery of information about performed Payment Transactions, unless otherwise specifically agreed between the Bank and the Payer. In the case of refusal to perform a payment for reasons on the part of the Payment Services User, the Bank charges a fee for that service according to the valid Price List.

Article 4

Conditions for the Performance of Cashless Payment Transactions

1. The Bank shall perform cashless Payment Transactions from the Payer's Payment Account and to the Beneficiary's Payment account by means of:
 - a) Payment Orders, namely:

15. A consent for SEPA Direct Debit performance for any Beneficiary must contain the following mandatory particulars:
- a) Payer's account number in the IBAN format;
 - b) Validity date (since when it is permitted to make the debit).
16. The Bank shall not be obliged to accept and perform Payment Order if:
- a) the Payment Order does not contain all the mandatory particulars specified in these Business Terms and Conditions;
 - b) the data in the Payment Order are corrected, crossed out or incompletely, ambiguously, incorrectly and illegibly completed or if they are not completed in the way usual in the banking practice;
 - c) the Payment Order is not submitted in the way agreed with the Bank.
17. If the Payer states in the SEPA Payment Order which is a payment within the SR a variable symbol, specific symbol or constant symbol (any of them or all of them), in order to meet the SEPA standards the Bank shall be entitled to convert these symbols to the Payment Reference in the structure /VS/SS/CS with supplemented data from these symbols. The Bank and the Payer have agreed upon the procedure referred to in the previous sentence and the Payer agrees with the procedure.
18. If the Payer submits the Bank a Credit Transfer Payment Order in the SEPA format and requires execution of a Quick Payment through TARGET2, due to technical conditions for execution of such a type of payment the Bank reserves the right to make changes in the Payment Order what will lead to non-compliance with the SEPA format and which may mean failure to transfer some non-mandatory SEPA Payment data to the Beneficiary.
19. If the Payer provides the Beneficiary Bank Swift Code (BIC) on the SEPA Payment Order, which is not in compliance with the Beneficiary account number (IBAN), the Bank will not consider such Payment Order as clear and reserves the right to refuse the execution thereof. If the Beneficiary provides the Payer Bank Swift Code (BIC) on the SEPA Payment Order, which is not in compliance with the Payer account number (IBAN), the Bank will not consider such Payment Order as clear and reserves the right to refuse the execution thereof.
20. The deadlines for handover of Payment Orders and the time during which Payment Orders can be submitted to the Bank (Cut-Off Time) are notified by the Bank by Publication.
21. If the Payment Order received by the Bank in the form of Credit Transfer Payment Order does not contain Settlement Date or contains Settlement Date that has already passed, the Bank shall execute such a Payment Order on the Settlement Date valid in the moment of delivery of the Payment Order provided that
- a) the Payment Order is delivered to the Bank within the deadlines determined by the Bank for delivery of Payment Orders (Cut-Off Time);
 - b) the Payment Order contains all the mandatory particulars determined by the Bank;
 - c) the Payer's account reports sufficient finance.
22. Payment Orders in the form of Direct Debit Payment Order submitted after the determined Cut-Off Time of the Banking Day shall be cleared by the Bank on the first Banking Day following the day of their delivery. The Bank notifies the determined time by Publication.
23. Payment Orders in the form of Credit Transfer Payment Order submitted to the Bank with later settlement date shall be executed by the Bank on the determined day according to the Settlement Date. If the Settlement Date falls on a day that is not a Banking Day, the Bank shall be entitled to execute the Payment Order on the next Banking Day after the Settlement Date, with the exception of Standing Orders which the Bank is entitled to execute on the day preceding the Settlement Date, unless otherwise agreed between the Bank and the Payer. The Bank reserves the right to only accept such Payment Orders with a later settlement date, the settlement date of which is maximum ninety (90) Bank business days after the date of acceptance of the Payment Order.

24. The Bank shall not be obliged to perform a Standing Order in the relevant maturity period determined by the Payer if the Standing Order (its creation/change) is not submitted to the Bank at least two (2) Banking Days before the Settlement Date.
25. If the Payer submits Standing Order after the deadline determined by the Bank, the Bank shall be entitled to carry out such a Standing Order as late as in the next maturity period determined by the Payer.
26. Payment Orders in the form of Direct Debit Payment Order shall be submitted by the Beneficiary to the Bank before the Settlement Date in compliance with the generally valid SEPA Direct Debit Rules.
27. SEPA Direct Debit for the performance of which the Payer granted his consent (permit) directly to the Bank shall only be executed by the Bank if:
 - a) the validity date of the consent (permit) granted to the Bank took place;
 - b) the Beneficiary delivers the Direct Debit Payment Order to the Bank within the determined time and the Direct Debit Payment Order contains the settlement data according to the consent (permit) for Direct Debit performance granted by the Payer;
 - c) the sum of the Direct Debit is lower than or equals to the Maximum SEPA Direct Debit Limit;
 - d) also all the other conditions given by the Payer to the Bank in the consent for SEPA Direct Debit are met.
28. If the Direct Debit Payment Order contains information indicating that it is the last Direct Debit (FNAL), the validity of the relevant consent (permit) for SEPA Direct Debit performance granted by the Payer of the Direct Debit to the Bank will be automatically cancelled during processing of the Direct Debit Payment Order. In addition, if according to the consent (permit) for SEPA Direct Debit performance granted to the Bank the payment by Direct Debit is not executed for the period of 36 months, the granted consent (permit) for SEPA Direct Debit performance shall expire.
29. The Bank shall debit money from the Payment Account based on the presented Payment Order, cheque or payment card. Otherwise, the Bank shall only be entitled to debit money from the Payment Account:
 - a) on the basis of a valid and enforceable decision of a court that ordered execution of a decision via debiting a claim from a Payment Account in a financial institution;
 - b) on the basis of an execution title according to special regulations;
 - c) in case of termination of the Contract on Current Account;
 - d) in case of deduction of tax pursuant to valid generally binding legal regulations;
 - e) in order to pay all prices and actual expenses on services provided, to pay due debit interest or in other cases if the Bank is entitled to do so pursuant to contractual arrangements made with the Payment Account owner;
 - f) in other cases agreed in writing between the Bank and the Payment Account owner;
 - g) in case of correction of incorrect settlement caused by the Bank or other bank (bank cancellation) in compliance with a special regulation.
30. If the Bank debits money pursuant to Article 4 (29) (a) and (b) hereof from the Payment Account maintained in a currency different from the currency in which the execution of a decision or execution are being performed according to a special regulation, the payment shall be translated at the Exchange Rate to be determined by the Bank and which is Published by the Bank.
31. If the Bank receives several Payment Orders with the same Settlement Date and there is insufficient money on the Account to perform all the delivered Payment Orders, the Bank shall be entitled to decide which of the Payment Orders will be carried out. The Bank prefers settlement of Payment Orders between Accounts within the Bank over payments to other banks.
32. The Bank shall settle Payment Orders up to the amount of disposable money on the Payer's Payment Account.
33. If in the time of settlement the Payer's Payment Account records insufficient money for performance of the Credit Transfer Payment Order and payment of Fees charged by the Bank to the Payer for the performance of the Credit Transfer Payment Order, the Bank shall execute the Credit Transfer Payment Order after a corresponding amount of money will be available on the Payer's Payment Account. In such a case, the Credit Transfer Payment Order can be carried out no later than within three (3) Banking Days following the Settlement Date. If the Payer fails to secure sufficient money on the Payment Account during that period of time, the Bank shall consider the Credit Transfer Payment Order to be non-executable.

34. The Bank shall perform Voluntary Payment of Execution under the following conditions:
 - a) the account reports sufficient credit funds;
 - b) the execution to be paid is the first one in the order of all executions or after the required payment the account will still report sufficient Funds for preceding executions and minimum balance;
 - c) payments of executions are not performed from the sum of authorized overdraft.
35. If in the time of settlement of Direct Debit Payment Order the Payer's Payment Account does not report sufficient money for the performance of SEPA Direct Debit and for payment of Fees charged by the Bank to the Payer for the performance of the SEPA Direct Debit, the Bank will refuse to perform the SEPA Direct Debit, i.e. it will consider the SEPA Direct Debit to be non-executable. The deadlines required for securing sufficient money on the Payer's Payment Account for the performance of the Direct Debit (Cut-Off Time) are notified by the Bank by Publication.
36. The Payer and the Bank have agreed that if the Payer states Fee Instruction BEN in the Payment Order for a payment to be executed as a Cross-Border Payment within EEA in any currency of EEA Member States, the Bank shall refuse such Payment Order. If the Payer states Fee Instruction OUR in the Payment Order for a payment to be executed as a Cross-Border Payment within EEA in any currency of EEA Member States, the Payer gives his or her consent to the Bank to process such Payment Order in compliance with Fee Instruction OUR.
37. If a Credit Transfer Payment Order for Cross-Border Payment is issued in a currency in which the Bank cannot perform it, the Bank shall be entitled to refuse to perform the Credit Transfer Payment Order.
38. In case the missing data or data incorrectly filled out by the Payer in the Payment Order submitted to the Bank (e.g. missing or incorrect BIC, missing Beneficiary account name, ...), prevent the automatic processing of the Payment Transaction, the Bank and the Payer agreed that the Bank is entitled to charge an additional fee pursuant to the valid Pricelist to the Payer's account or refuse to process the Payment Transaction.
39. If a payment from abroad is credited to the Payment Services User's Payment Account and the foreign bank requires refund of the payment, the Bank shall ask the Payment Account owner for his or her consent to refund the payment. If the Bank obtains the consent from the Payment Account owner, it shall be entitled to debit from his or her Payment Account the sum of the payment, namely with the current date and exchange rate for payments with conversion.
40. If the sum of a Settlement is to be converted from one currency into another currency, the Bank shall make the conversion according to the Exchange Rate valid in the moment of performance (i.e. debiting or crediting of money from/to the Payment Account) of the payment. If the sum of the payment is higher than or equals to €33,000 (or an equivalent of the sum in a foreign currency), the Bank shall be entitled to translate the sum of the incoming payment by using a different exchange rate than the exchange rate provided in the Bank's exchange rate list. In case of outgoing payments placed by a Consumer, when currency is to be changed to another currency and the sum of the payment is higher than or equals to €33,000 (or an equivalent of the sum in a foreign currency), the Bank shall be entitled to suspend processing of the payment until the Bank agrees with the Payer upon a different exchange rate. The Bank shall be entitled to charge fees connected with the conversion of currencies to the debit of the customer's Payment Account in accordance with the Price List.

Article 5

Conditions for the Performance of Cash Payment Transactions

1. A Payment Services User can perform Payment Transactions by means of the Bank by using Funds in cash, namely:
 - a) via Deposit of Funds in cash in the Bank's cash register, namely by means of duly completed Payment Order which, in this case, is a cash receipt of the Bank; or
 - b) via Deposit of Funds in cash in the Bank's cash register, namely by delivery of the cash without physical presence of the Customer (special contractual arrangement), namely on the basis of

- a duly completed Payment Order (two counterparts) which, in this case, is a cash receipt of the Bank; or
- c) via Deposit of Funds in cash in the Bank's cash register, namely by means of a night safe of the Bank (special contractual arrangement), namely on the basis of a duly completed Payment Order (two counterparts) which, in this case, is a cash receipt of the Bank, along with a completed list for single deposited nominal values; or
 - d) via withdrawal of Funds in cash from the Bank's cash register, namely by means of a duly completed Payment Order which, in this case, is a cash receipt of the Bank; or
 - e) by One-Off Cash Payment, at the Bank's cash register, namely by means of a duly completed Payment Order which, in this case, is a cash receipt of the Bank; or
 - f) by a cheque issued for payment of Funds in cash; or
 - g) by a bank payment card by means of ATM at the selected Business Places of the Bank by using the Cash Advance service.
2. The Bank accepts Deposits of Funds in cash and allows withdrawals of Funds in cash at its Business Places during cash desk service hours and in premises determined for that purpose by the Bank.
 3. The Bank accepts Deposits of Funds in cash also by means of sealed packages delivered by the Payment Services User who is not Consumer or by technical equipment, i.e. by means of sealed packages deposited in a night safe if the Bank agrees with the Payer on such a way of accepting Deposits of Funds in cash in the relevant written Contract.
 4. The Bank accepts Deposits by means of a night safe or in other agreed way also outside cash desk service hours of the Bank's Business Place.
 5. The Bank shall determine the way of use of the night safe, the way of takeover and handover of keys and codes for its use, packages for values to be deposited in the night safe and procedures for processing values deposited in the night safe in the terms and conditions for night safe use in compliance with contractual arrangement.
 6. The Bank shall take over the contents of a night safe solely in the commissarial way and in the place where the night safe is located, namely in compliance with the business usage and on each Banking Day during cash desk service hours of the Bank's Business Place.
 7. The Bank shall allow the Customer, upon his request, to watch the commissarial takeover of the Deposit made by the Customer in cash in a sealed package.
 8. The Customer agrees that in case of detecting of any difference (surplus, deficit, or difference caused by receipt of invalid, suspicious, false, altered, incomplete or significantly damaged banknotes) between the sum of cash established by the Bank in the commissarial way and the sum stated in the Payment Order (cash receipt), the Bank shall indicate in the Payment Order (cash receipt) the actually established sum of the Deposit in cash and to settle that sum to the credit of the Customer's Payment Account.
 9. The Customer shall be liable for any damage incurred by incorrect handling during the use of night safe and shall be obliged to fully compensate the Bank for the damage.
 10. In the case of deposition of Funds to the Payment Account during performance of One-Off Cash Payment, the Bank shall be entitled to require from the Payment Services User, in addition to duly completed cash receipt, also submission of a statement of ownership of the money used for the performance of a deal having value of at least €15,000.
 11. If the Payment Order submitted to the Bank in the form of cash receipt does not contain all the particulars required by the Bank, the Bank shall be entitled to refuse to perform the required Payment Service.
 12. Receipt of Funds in the case of cash withdrawal shall be confirmed by the Payment Account owner or by a person authorized by the latter, namely by own signature attached to the cash receipt; the signature must be identical to the sample signature provided in the Specimen Signature to the Payment Account kept by the Bank.
 13. The Payment Services User shall be obliged to immediately count the Funds withdrawn in cash at the Bank's cash desk. The Bank will not consider any complaints raised by the Payment Services User after he received the Funds and left the cash desk.
 14. After receipt of a confirmed cash receipt (i.e. confirmation of Payment Transaction performance) and leaving the cash desk, the Payment Services User shall not be entitled to require cancellation of such performed Payment Transaction.
 15. If the sum of the Payment Transaction made at the Bank's cash desk is to be converted from one currency into a different currency, the Bank shall perform the conversion by applying the Exchange Rate pursuant to the Bank's exchange rate list valid on the date of performance of the Payment Transaction. If the sum of the payment is higher than or equals to €33,000 (or an equivalent of such a sum in a foreign currency), the Bank shall be entitled to convert the sum of the payment at an individual exchange rate determined by the Bank. The Bank shall be entitled to charge to the debit of the Payment Services User's Payment Account any Fees connected with the currency conversion in compliance with the valid Price List.

16. The Bank shall be entitled to condition cash withdrawal of a higher sum of Funds from the Payment Services User's Payment Account by prior notification (in person or in other way agreed); sufficient money for the performance of the Payment Transaction has to be present on the Payment Account in the time of the notification. The amount of cash withdrawal which will be conditioned by the Bank by a notification and the deadline for notification of the withdrawal are Published by the Bank.
17. If the Payment Services User fails to observe the deadline for notification of withdrawal of a higher sum of Funds in cash, the Bank shall not be obliged to perform the required Payment Transaction immediately. In the case of immediate performance of the cash withdrawal conditioned by notification, the Bank shall be entitled to require payment of a Fee pursuant to the valid Price List.
18. The Bank shall be entitled to refuse to perform withdrawal of cash from the Payment Services User's Payment Account at a Business Place of the Bank where the Payment Account is not established if performance of such a Payment Transaction is required by a person who is not personally known at that Business Place of the Bank. The Bank shall ask the Payment Services User to perform the Payment Service at the Bank's Business Place where the Payment Account was opened.
19. Withdrawal of funds not subject to execution is only possible in the cases when the Bank is allowed according to the legal regulations to pay such funds and solely based on a written statement – request signed by the Account Owner and containing the required particulars. If consent of execution authority that ordered the execution is required for the withdrawal, the consent has to be submitted to the Bank in written form and not later than in the time of the withdrawal.

Article 6

Deadlines for the Performance of Payment Transactions

1. The Bank and the Customer have agreed that the deadlines provided in this Article shall apply on the condition that the Customer has met all the conditions for the performance of Payment Order determined by these Business Terms and Conditions.
2. The following deadlines shall apply to the processing of Payment Orders in the form of SEPA Payments:
 - a) Credit Payment Orders within the EEA, carried out as standard payments, received by the Bank until the determined Cut-Off Time on a Banking Day that is the Settlement Date will be processed on the same day (D).  - g) All Credit Transfer Payment Orders received by the Bank after the determined Cut-Off Time will be processed on the next Banking Day following the day when they were received by the Bank.

- h) All Credit Transfer Payment Orders received by the Bank before the Settlement Date will be processed on the day of the Settlement Date.
5. The Bank will credit to the Beneficiary's Payment Account money received in the form of Cross-Border Payment and will allow the Beneficiary to dispose of the money on the same Banking Day as the day when the money was credited to the Bank's account provided that:
- a) the Bank has obtained a document for settlement until the Cut-Off Time determined by the Bank for incoming Cross-Border Payments;
 - b) the Cross-Border Payment contains correct data.
6. If the document for crediting of a Cross-Border Payment to the Beneficiary's Payment Account is delivered to the Bank after the money was credited to the Bank's account, the payment will be credited to the Beneficiary's account on the date when the money was credited to the Bank's account; the Beneficiary can dispose of the money not sooner than on the date of delivery of the document to the Bank.
7. If money is credited to the Bank's account after the Bank credited the money to the Beneficiary or if money is not credited to the Bank's account at all, the Bank shall be entitled to perform a correcting settlement.
8. If the Direct Debit Payment Order is received from the Beneficiary according to the generally valid SEPA Direct Debit Rules and all conditions for Direct Debit performance are met:
- a) the Bank, in the position of Payer's bank, will debit the money from the Payer's Payment Account on the day being the Settlement Date (D);
 - b) the Bank, in the position of Beneficiary's bank, will credit the money to the Beneficiary's Payment Account on the day being the Settlement Date (D).
9. The following deadlines shall apply to the processing of Payment Orders in the form of Deposits of Funds in cash and withdrawals of Funds in cash at a counter of the Bank's Business Place:
- a) Deposits in cash made at the Bank's Business Place during cash desk service hours or at the Bank's Business Place with extended cash desk service hours until the Cut-Off Time determined by the Bank will be credited by the Bank to the Beneficiary's Payment Account and the Bank will allow the Beneficiary to dispose of the Funds on the same Banking Day (D);
 - b) cash withdrawals made at the Bank's Business Place during cash desk service hours or at the Bank's Business Place with extended cash desk service hours until the Cut-Off Time determined by the Bank will be debited by the Bank from the Payer's Payment Account on the same Banking Day (D);
 - c) Deposits in cash and cash withdrawals made at the Bank's Business Place with extended cash desk service hours after the Cut-Off Time determined by the Bank or on a rest day or bank holiday will be processed by the Bank with the date of the next Banking Day;
 - d) the Business Place of the Bank notifies the Cut-Off Time by Publication in its Business Premises.
10. The following deadlines shall apply to the processing of Payment Orders in the form of Deposits of Funds in cash by means of the Bank's night safe (CONTRACT on use of a night safe):
- a) the Bank considers cash deposited in a night safe to be delivered on the day when the Bank's employees open the night safe and establish its contents;
 - b) the Bank will take over the cash and credit it to the Beneficiary's account no later than on the next Banking Day (D+1) after the cash was delivered to the Bank. The Bank will confirm takeover of the cash and crediting of the same by issuance/dispatch of a confirmed second part of the Payment Order (cash receipt).
11. The Bank will process Funds in cash delivered during cash desk service hours to dedicated premises of the Bank's Business Place in closed packages without physical presence of the Customer (one-time statement or contractual arrangement) and will credit the same to the Beneficiary's account no later than on the next Banking Day (D+1) after the Funds were delivered to the Bank. The Bank will confirm the takeover of Funds in cash and their crediting by issuance/dispatch of a confirmed second part of the Payment Order (cash receipt).

1. The Payment Services User undertakes to notify the Bank of any unauthorized or incorrectly performed Payment Transaction and to claim the entitlement to correction with the Bank without undue delay, however, not later than within the deadline determined by the Complaint Code.
2. The Bank shall be liable for correct performance of Payment Transactions provided that the Payment Services User complies with all the conditions stipulated in these Business Terms and Conditions and in generally binding legal regulations. Upon written request of the Payment Services User, the Bank shall exercise reasonable effort to track the course of not performed or incorrectly performed Payment Transaction and shall notify the result of the tracking to the Payment Services User.
3. If the Bank proves to the Payer or Beneficiary's bank that the sum of the Payment Transaction was delivered to the Beneficiary's bank within the deadline according to generally binding legal regulations, the Beneficiary's Bank shall be liable towards the Beneficiary for incorrect performance of or failure to perform the Payment Transaction.
4. The Bank and the Payment Services User agreed that if the Bank has caused an erroneous execution or settlement of a payment, due to which it has come to an unjustified enrichment of the Beneficiary, the Bank is entitled to execute correcting settlement. Correcting settlement shall mean correction of the incorrectly performed Payment via correcting settlement to the Payment Account or from the Payment Account of the Payment Services User, namely without undue delay after the Bank learned or detected such a fact.
5. If possible, the Bank shall inform the Payment Services User, whose money is debited from the Payment Account or to whose Payment Account money is credited due the correcting settlement, about performance of the correcting settlement which the Bank performs or performed, namely in writing or in electronic form.
6. If a payment from abroad is credited to the Payment Services User's Payment Account and the foreign bank requires refund of the payment, the Bank shall ask the Payment Account owner for his consent to the refund of the payment. If the Bank obtains the consent from the Payment Account owner, it shall be entitled to debit from his Payment Account the sum of the payment, namely with the original date when the payment was credited. An equivalent of the returned sum in foreign currency depends on the exchange rate valid on the day of refund of the payment.
7. The Bank shall not perform correcting settlement if the incorrect settlement or incorrect performance of the Payment Order is caused by the Payment Services User by his own mistake. If execution of the correcting settlement is prevented by other circumstances, for instance, execution, the Bank shall not be obliged to perform the correcting settlement, including the case that the Beneficiary agrees with the correcting settlement. However, the Payment Services User shall be entitled to ask the Bank for cooperation in relation to mediation of refund of money or provision of data for identification of the Beneficiary of the payment.

Article 8

Liability for Damage

1. The Bank shall not be liable for damage suffered by the Payment Services User and by his business partner due to return of not accepted and non-executable Payment Orders.

 8. The Bank accepts and handles complaints and suggestions of Customers.

Article 9

Handling of Complaints

1. The Payment Services User who is dissatisfied with the execution of a Payment Transaction by the Bank, is entitled to file a complaint in writing, in person at any Business Place of the Bank, by mail, e-mail or through the dedicated section of the Bank's internet site, or verbally through the Call Centre. A request of the Payment Services User for examination of an unauthorized Payment Transaction or of an authorized Payment Transaction that has not been carried out or has been carried out incorrectly by the Payer's Bank, mediating bank or by the Beneficiary's bank shall be deemed to constitute a complaint.
2. In the case of One-Off Transfer to the beneficiary's account, the Payer can also lodge a complaint with the contractor at whose place the payment was made by the payer. The condition for acceptance of the complaint is submission of the confirmation that the invoice was downloaded and a confirmation of payment at the contractor.
3. The Bank's Complaint Code Published by the Bank governs the handling of complaints and disputes relating to the provision of Payment Services.

PART THREE

COMMON AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 10
